The Russian version (translit):

"On the hills of Manchuria"

Silence is around,
Hills are covered by darkness,
Here the moon shined for a moment from behind clouds,
Graves are keeping rest.

Crosses show up white,
Heroes are sleeping here.
The shadows of past are whirling around again,
And are speaking about the victims of the combats which were here.

Silence is around,
A wind took away a fog,
Warriors are sleeping on the Manchurian hills
And aren't hear Russian tears.

A darling mother is crying, is crying,
A young wife is crying.
One and all are crying
And are cursing their fate and destiny.

Let kaoliang [1]
Will call up dreams to you,
Soldiers of the Russian land, be asleep,
Sons of the dear Fatherland.

You died for Russia,
You died for the Fatherland,
Believe us, we shall take revenge for you
And will make a glorious funeral feast
And will make a glorious funeral feast
